

General information

Are you talented Marketing & Business Development Manager, keen to work for a leading company in services industry?

If your answer is yes, we have an interesting position for you.

Never worked in the legal industry before?

Never mind, only a few of your colleagues did.

We are one of the leading business legal practice in Croatia, servicing clients since 1928. Following a recent trilateral merger we've set the ground for new growth and expansion. Come and join us in breaking the ice! We are opening this position for the first time so the employee would be in charge for setting up the team, procedures and system in place.

To support our ambitious growth, we are now looking for a Business Development Manager (m/f) in our Zagreb office.
